Columbarium at FFG Community Church

Behind the church parking lot at the edge of the woods is a quiet, shady area with a gently sloping walk, rock floor at the bottom and benches on which to sit and reflect. Rows of small chambers, clearly marked, contain the cremated remains of former church members. Visitors are welcome at any time, whether to visit remains of friends and loved ones or to just find a comfortable place to pray and meditate.

Closeups

The following are closeups of the four groups of chambers
