

CARING CARD SHOPPE AT FGCC

By Louise Wirbel

This is your invitation to take advantage of the collection of all-occasion cards available at FGCC's specialty shop. Where else can you find a wide selection of special cards waiting to be sent by you or your family to someone who needs, or will enjoy, or be uplifted by your remembrance.

The boxes of cards will be on display in the fellowship hall on the table under the Community bulletin board. Available card selections range from Holidays, Get Well Wishes, Thinking of You, Sympathy Thoughts, Birthdays or Special Days. Plus a large box of attractive blank Note Cards will really give card senders opportunity to cover a variety of occasions. Card receivers will be especially thrilled by the personalized attention of a written note. And the appropriate envelope will be a partner to the card.

And how is it possible to come up with so many available choices of greeting cards for Community Church shoppers? Because the shoppers may have already been donors of greeting cards, and know how special some of them are. One of the large boxes on the display table is labeled Donations, and hopefully people will choose to share packets of cards received in the mail or by solicitation with FGCC's Caring Card Shoppe.

Granted, greeting cards may have been sent by the National Wildlife Federation, Habitat for Humanity, or Guiding Eyes for the Blind, etc.; while others bear names of illustrators, feature works of Renoir, Manet and even Mouth and Foot Painting artists; or may represent a study of portraits from Williamsburg or Washington, DC. The donation box welcomes all cards, accompanied by the envelopes.

Christian Response hopes to whet your interest in the support of the Card Shoppe, as another segment of the 40th anniversary of FGCC.
